IRISH STOUT

This unique Irish stout brings one back to how Irish stouts used to taste, with a robust roast flavour and full-bodied smooth mouth feel. It has been awarded prestigious honours for its quality and authenticity.

STYLE

Traditional Dry Irish Stout

 ABV 4.3%

APPEARANCE

Deep black colour with reddish hue when held to the light. It pours with a thick creamy head from the keg, the carbonated bottle pours with a thick fluffy head that is almost tan in colour.

NOSE

Rich and complex coffee aroma with light liquorice notes.

FLAVOUR

This Stout has a robust roast flavour with a full-bodied and smooth mouth feel. A generous addition of Fuggles hops leads to a tart bitterness which mingles with the roast espresso flavours on the tongue.

FOOD PAIRING

Excellent with seafood particularly shellfish and smoked salmon. Also pairs well with strong flavoured cheeses and dry cured meats such as Parma ham.

o'hara's | CARLOW BREWING COMPANY

Founded by the O'Hara family in 1996 and still family owned and operated today, Carlow Brewing Company also known as O'Hara's Brewery, is located in the heart of Ireland's traditional malt and hop growing "Barrow Valley" region which has strong historical linkages to the Irish brewing industry. Pioneers of the Irish craft brewing renaissance, the O'Hara's brewing team are set on the path to revert Ireland's brewing landscape back to flavoursome beers.

Brewing is our heritage and we brew to preserve that legacy.
